GRUENDELPARTNER advises WMS on investment in Radeberger Fleisch- und Wurstwaren Korch GmbH

WMS Wachstumsfonds Mittelstand Sachsen (Leipzig) invests in Radeberger Fleisch- und Wurstwaren Korch GmbH. The present managing partner Felix Alber remains majority shareholder and continues to be responsible for the operational business.

Radeberger Fleisch- und Wurstwaren Korch GmbH was founded in 1991 as Fleischerei Georg Korch and today stands for its established and successful brand "Original Radeberger" with a high level of recognition and high-quality premium products in the meat and sausage segment. More than 400 employees generate a turnover of approximately 50 million euros in the food retail industry and in the company's own 21 branches, which are mainly located in Saxony.

WMS is an initiative of the state of Saxony and regional financial institutions and has supported more than 30 Saxon companies in the implementation of their growth strategies since 2005. In the third fund generation, another 85 million euros were launched.

GRUENDELPARTNER has provided legal advice to WMS with a team led by Dr. Mirko Gruendel and Dr. Franziska Ockert. GRUENDELPARTNER's Equity Capital practise group is one of the most experienced and best staffed advisory units in Central Germany and supports investors and founders in all development stages, in particular regarding business formation, development, and financing as well as during all exit processes.
